

Uncertain Times. Difficult Decisions. Our Volunteers Can Help.

TRTCares is a non profit, nondenominational, outreach program created by Temple Rodeph Torah of Marlboro, New Jersey. Our goal is to advise and support individuals in the local community who have been affected by the current adverse economic climate.

The services of TRTCares are always confidential and delivered completely free of charge.

Members of the Temple Rodeph Torah congregation and others have stepped forward to generously offer their professional expertise in the following areas:

- Legal
- Financial (Tax, Accounting, Financial Advising)
- Health Experts to address stress related issues
- Real estate
- Career Counseling and Job Bank

If you need assistance or know of someone in need, please contact us at 732-320-8287 for a confidential introduction.

You can be assured that the needs of each individual will be met with the highest degree of compassion, confidentiality and professionalism.

If interested in providing your expertise to this community effort, please contact us at trtcares@gmail.com

Let TRTCares help you take the first step in resolving your problems.
